ORAL ORDER

(Passed on 14th February 2006)

Since the complaints in all these writ petitions are substantially similar, all of them were clubbed, heard them together and they are being disposed of by this common order.

(2) Against the orders impugned in these writ petitions, an appeal lies under Clause-18 of the Public Distribution System (Control) Order, 2004, to the Collector under Clause 18 (1) of the Public Distribution System (Control) Order 2004.

(3) Having heard learned counsel for the parties, I am of the considered opinion that there is no justification for the petitioners to rush to this Court under Article 226 of the Constitution of India without exhausting alternative statutory remedies. In that view of the matter, I dismiss all these writ petitions, however, reserving liberty to the petitioners to workout their legal remedies by way of appeal before the jurisdictional Collector under Clause 18 (1) of the Public Distribution System (Control) Order, 2004. If such appeals are preferred by the petitioners within seven days from today, the jurisdictional Collector shall hear and dispose of those appeals within one month from the date of receipt of appeal, in accordance with law and after giving opportunity of hearing to the petitioners. In the meanwhile, the respondents are directed not to allot the shops in question to any third parties till the District Collector disposes of the appeals of the petitioners as directed above. It is made clear that this order shall not come in the way of the card-holders drawing the provisions from the shops allotted to them under the impugned orders in the meanwhile.
